

Broadband Over Power Line will render most of the Amateur Radio service useless. It will also cause interference in many areas that no one has even thought of yet. By its very nature, the power grid makes a very unpredictably radiator. Nothing is balanced!

Please heed the advice of the ARRL on this issue.
Please note the rest of the developed world where this has been stricken down.

Thanks,
James Molinaro